Your kiss really makes me feel so wonderful
Your smile oh it makes me feel so grand
If I could only, only see
What the future has in store for poor little me
If it was you then I would be ready for your love

I've searched the earth one hundreds times or more
To find a true love
I've finally what I've been searching for You're the angel I've been dreaming of

Your kiss really makes me feel so wonderful
And your smile yes it makes me feel so grand
If I could only, only see
What the future has in store for poor little me
If it was you then I would be ready for your love
