"Good Love Comin' On"

There's a whisper on the wind
Something's coming 'round the bend
There's a new emotion
Rising like a river in me

There's music in my heart again
Playing like a mandolin
I can see the sun shining
Smell the wild flowers on the breeze

You shine new light
Into this lost and lonely soul
Now my lonely days are gone
I feel a good love comin' on

You've awakened my desire
Rekindled that old fire
And even when you leave me
I can feel your touch on my skin

I felt the flame before
But darling, this is something more
You fill me with a feeling
That I've got to have again and again

You shine new light
Into this lost and lonely soul
Now my lonely days are gone
I feel a good love comin' on
