Behind these silent walls we float away
Under a velvet sky our secrets lay

We talk to the angels
We talk to the angels
We talk to the angels

Time to turn away the tears we hide in the rain
Time to turn away from the world and be strong, be one
And a peace comes over
Yea a peace comes over
Sometimes the spoken word leaves us confused
Closing our eyes we hear the language of truth

We talk to the angels
We talk to the angels

We talk to the angels

Hey....hey....hey....hey
Time to turn away the tears we hide in the rain
one
And a peace comes over
Yea a peace comes over
Like a warm coat, like a second skin
Like a cool drink, like a liquid sin

We talk to the angels
We talk to the angels
We talk to the angels.....
