Just a terminal case like a fish on a hook i'm baited You're welcome inside, my armies are marching i can't save you, who could save you I can see that from your wounds your open wide It's coming clear now that you're leaving, you forgot the people that you've left behind

Chorus

This is the long long goodbye, try to keep smiling as these tears break from my eyes
This is the way i used to feel, guess i'll be trading down for something much more real, much more real

Caught in a terrible wind, with a kick in the teeth you blew me in anime eyes, you've never been quite sure what your losing,
But you know you're losing so, i'll burn these bridges from the other side
And in the end it's all illusion, you forgot the people you've left behind

Chorus

This is the long long goodbye try to keep smiling as
these tears break from my eyes
This is the way i use to feel guess I'll be trading down
for something much more real, much more real

Quite sure what your losing but you know your losing I can see that from your wounds you're open wide Its coming clear now that im leaving I forgot the lover that i left behind

Chorus

And this is the long long goodbye, try to keep smiling as these tears break from my eyes
This is the way I used to feel, guess I'll be trading down for something much more real, guess I'll be trading down for something much more real, much more real
