Turn me out then turn me on
Pretty flower cannot you tell me
What's become of who we are Only asking what you'd like tonight

We'll take America
Just shake my tits and ass
Yeah, we'll go far

And if we wanted more
Then that was only what we thought our right was
Only wanted more
But we were always blinded

Here we want to try
But I can't try to be as plain as daylight
Looking to the world
But we were always blinded

Sell a little bit to you
A circus sideshow but the makeup's shining through,
it's not so bad
Is there anyone to know?
Forget my politics, just sex me 'til I'm done, it's not so hard

And if we wanted more
Then that was only what we thought our right was
Only wanted more
But we were always blinded

Here we want to try
But I can try to be as plain as daylight
Looking to the world
But we were always blinded

And all the stars are out for you
And everybody's hiding here
And all the stars have come unglued
But everybody, everybody's changing

We're changing

We're changing

And if we wanted more
Then that was only what we thought our right was
Only wanted more
But we were always blinded

Here we want to try
But I can't try to be as plain as daylight
Looking to the world
But we were always blinded, always blinded

And all the stars are out for you
And everybody's hiding here
And all the stars have come unglued
But everybody, everybody's changing

We're changing
We're changing

Thank you
