Tell me a story about the way I use to be
Millions of pieces all the spaces in between Crack in the mirror all the things that we cant see
Tell me a story about the way i use to be

Through this window sky's exploding
I am floating higher and higher where time fades away
Carry on

Tell me a story like the pictures on tv
A beautiful dream I had of a world that cant be seen
You were my lover only thing that sets me free
Tell me a story about the way we use to be

Through this window skies exploding

I see storm clouds rising higher as time fades away
Carry on
Carry on

We are we are

Through this window I see sunrise
See the storm clouds rising high as we fade away
Carry on
In the morning skies exploding
I am floating higher and higher where time fades away
Carry on
