We are all just aching, we're waiting
For heartbreak in this world of light and darkness
I lost it, the ability to see myself more clearly
I lost it, the ability to see

Have you found
What you've been looking for?
Now you've killed all your enemies
But you still want more

When your hate finds the love
That it can't destroy
And when the cancer's all gone
We're still growing old, old, older

I know that you're fearless, I bought it
What brought you to your knees?
Your rage is visible so nearly
Intelligence sets you free
My mind is clearly undoing the ability to see

Have you found
What you've been looking for?
Now you've killed all your enemies
But you still want more

When your hate finds the love
That it can't destroy
And when the cancer's all gone
You're still growing old, old, older

To see, have you found
What you've been looking for?
Now you've killed all your enemies
But you still want more

When your hate finds the love
That it can't destroy
And when the cancer's all gone
We're still growing old

Old, old, older

You're still growing old
Old, older
