Car crash, east side of town
The water's deep here
You can feel your own strength fading
You're beginning to let go

The bubbles rise as we go down
Underwater, overwhelmed
Can't fight the current here
It's starting to take hold

But high above me, I can see the surface now
The picture perfect life is fading out of view
And high above me, I can feel the world
But I don't need it, I don't need it, I don't need it

I just need you
I just need you

Then you grow colder, like a dream
I can't believe the practical things
They're always out of reach
And I know you're not really here
These visions fly so quickly on the edge
They've started to take hold

But high above me, I can see the surface now
The picture perfect life is fading out of view
And high above me, I can feel the world
But I don't need it, I don't need it, I don't need it

Won't you help me with this loneliness?
'Cause I don't know what's wrong or right Underneath the truth, won't you help me with this bitterness?
'Cause I can't seem to walk outside

Car crash, east side of town
The water's deep here
I can feel my own strength fading
I'm beginning to let go

The bubbles rise as I go down

I hit the bottom, overwhelmed
Can't fight the current here
It's started to take hold

But high above me, I can see the surface now
The picture perfect life is fading out of view
And high above me, I can feel the world
But I don't need it, I don't need it, I don't need it
I don't need it, I don't need it, I don't need it
I don't need it, I don't need it, I don't need it

I just need you
I just need you
I just need you
I just need you
