1st Verse

There will come a day
And you will see
Just how much you mean to me
And all that hurt and all that your pain
Will burn you just the same
Then you'll look back
On what we had
And you'll wish to God you could have me back
But you made your choice and now I'm gone
And you're all alone

Bridge

I know you'll shed some tears
And you'll feel like you just can't go on
But in time your pain will ease
And girl you'll grow strong

2nd Verse

There will come a day
Just wait and see
And I'll be just memory
And all your hurt
And all your pain
Will slowly fade away
Then you'll look back and with a smile
And you'll think about us once and awhile
But you made your choice and now I'm gone
And you're all alone
Yes you made your choice and now I'm gone
And you're all alone
