This time it hurts and there is no mistake.
Can you see this knife sticking from my back?
It wasn't long that i was tunred around, but long enough.
Long enough.

I never thought that i would see, but now i'm seeing red.

Scarlet, my love, i gave to you.
Now that it's slipping through my hands
I can say that there is no healing for this open wound.
Scarlet i bleed, for you.

After all this time through everything,
I thought that there was something i could believe.
With this scar, i let you down.
Everything i'd hoped we'd be dies here with me.

Scarlet, my love, i gave to you.
Now that it's bleeding in my hands
I can say that there is no healing for this open wound.
Scarlet i bleed, for you.
