In an earthquake, it made space
Where I fell into you
In a starlight, you look so bright
You eclipse the moon

On a highway, just today
That's where I saw you
There was music from a distance
Burning through

She's here to rescue me
Clear my mind and set me free
If it's dark, she still shines
A masterpiece made by design

She's here to rescue me
Stain my mind with make believe
If it's dark, she still shines
She's my lady, so divine

Lady so divine
Come and change my mind
Lady so divine

When the waves break and the souls take
Refuge from the night
On a mountain is a story
Told a thousand times

Of a garden and a bed there
Made to rest our eyes
There's a comfort to a softness
And will not be denied

She's here to rescue me
Clear my mind and set me free
If it's dark, she still shines

Stain my mind with make believe
If it's dark, she still shines

She's my lady, so divine

Lady so divine
Come and change my mind
Lady so divine

In the midnight sun, she saves me
From what I've become
The midnight sun, she saves me
From what I have done, what I have done

She's here to rescue me
Clear my mind and set me free
If it's dark, she still shines

She's come to rescue me
Stain my mind with make believe
If it's dark, she still shines

Divine

Divine
Divine

Lady so divine
