What's with this distortion, distortion in the line
Between the things I said and your heart and mind
'Cause I can hear the echo reflecting in your eyes
What you think I said, you think you despise

Distortion... distortion...
Distortion

When I stand before you, you don't see me
You see ten generations of history
And I tried to show you I am not your enemy
But you never knew 'cause you were looking through
Your ideology

Distortion... distortion
You don't know me but you say you know my kind
I know only that you've made up your mind

Distortion... distortion
