It's sure to take its toll on me
'Cause my heart and mind will not agree
But there's something in this mystery
That calls me from beyond the blue

Right now I only wish I knew Where all of this is leading to
I'm working up the courage as I stand here
With your hand in mine and I'm running out of time

And my heart says, "C'mon, let's go"
But my mind is saying, "I don't know"
And the train is at the station but I'm lost in conversation
And this ticket's only good for just so long
So I can talk about it 'til that train is gone or just get on

It's not just by coincidence
That lives are made of accidents
And doesn't it make perfect sense
That life turns on a point in time
And I know that this is mine

And my heart says, "C'mon, let's go"
But my mind is saying, "I don't know"
And the train is at the station but I'm lost in conversation
And this ticket's only good for just so long
So I can talk about it 'til that train is gone or just get on

Someday somewhere
With one sweet kiss
You will bring me back to this

And my heart says, "C'mon, let's go"
But my mind is saying, "I don't know"
And the train is at the station but I'm lost in conversation
And this ticket's only good for just so long
So I can talk about it 'til that train is gone or just get on
