The angels don't know where to find her
She went out early yesterday
Spreading havoc and destruction
Breaking hearts along the way
The saints are laughing burning churches
There's love exploding everywhere
People hanging out, expectation in the air

(chorus)God is on a bender
Tearing up the town
Drinking everything
Healing everyone
Kicking Satan's ass around

She threw a shoe at a bartender
Closed the schools and split the sky
Smoked racism and disease, pride and poverty too
She's fired all the governments
Put flowers in control
Now she's singing and she's taking off her clothes
Made all the money disappear
She's feeding every hungry soul
(chorus)

She told a cop to mind his manners
Put that thing where it belongs
Turned all the bombs into houses
All the bullets into popcorn
All the reasons into song

(chorus)

The dogma cats are howling
Their backs are up against the wall
God is on a bender
Heaven help us all
Heaven help us all
Yeah! hahahahaa
