Too tired to sleep
Too angry to pray
Too far down to get back up
Too lost to find my way

And who knows what happened
I'm too confused to say
And too far gone to turn back now
It's too late anyway

I don't need a clever confidant
To try to soothe with hollow words
I've heard them all
What I need is just to know
I have a home within your heart

Just hold me close
A few words will do
We don't have to find the answers now
It's enough to be with you

I don't need a clever confidant
To try to soothe with hollow words
I've heard them all
What I need is just to know
I have a home within your heart
What I need is just to know
I have a home within your heart
