Skylight in my mind tonight
A window through the storm
Cloudburst in my universe
A view I'd never known

Close encounter with the secret sun
All my darkness comes undone

Party of one, this way, your place is waiting
We've been expecting you
Party of wonder, full, right on time
Just begun, party of one

Slowly raining over me
Soaking into my clothes
The street shines with an easy rhyme
That's singing in my bones

I hear the voice of revelation
This whole creation wants to have some fun

Party of one, this way, your place is waiting
We've been expecting you
Party of wonder, full, right on time
Just begun, party of one

Sailing free, untangled
Through the Bermuda Triangle of joy
That blues can't find me here no more
I'm carried away with love

Party of wonder, full, right on time
Just begun, party of one

We've been expecting you

Party of wonder, full, right on time
Just begun, party of one

Party of one
Party of wonder
You've been invited to a party of one
