From Turning Point

Riding out into the night
You know why and where to go
She can't wait to roll you right
She called you up and told you so

The town is sleeping and the motor's making time
Take it easy, hold it right at ninety-nine
Right now

Keep your mind back on the road
Concentration on the curves
She made time feel slow
She cranked the volume on your nerves

Feel the wind now as it cleans away your past
This when you feel your future changing fast
Right now

See the candle in the dawn
Lover's light is burning still Need some sleep to carry on Wonder when you ever will

'Cause there beside you she is breathing slow and sweet
She is smiling as you slide under the sheet
Right now
