I got a weakness for strong chemistry
One touch, all my resolutions change
I can say this is no good for me
But I'm back for more of the same

High on the ecstasy
Medication against the pain
Our bodies fit desperately together
Like a needle against a vein

A poppy flower is so beautiful
Gentle as a lover's touch
A touch is just a touch of strong medicine
And it's possible to take too much

We take it for comfort
To take away the pain for us
A poppy flower is beautiful
And a thousand poppies is dangerous

Oh no, can't go back again this time
Oh, but every time I see her
That magic seems to change my mind

I got a weakness for strong chemistry
One touch, all my resolutions change
I can say this is no good for me
But I'm back for more of the same

High on the ecstasy
Medication against the pain
Our bodies fit desperately together
Like a needle against a vein

I got weakness, strong
All resolutions
