On the clock...
The night is near
You're way to far...
Recall...

In your eyes...
Is emptiness
You hide your tears
To fall...

And your face is still smiling...
Pretending that it doesn't hurt at all

Cry...
In the moment of heartache
Cry...
When you lost in the dark again

Cry...
When you feel that is over
Cry...
When you know it was all in vain

All in vain...

Morning glow...
The day is young
A thousand dreams
Have gone...

As the sun...
Expands the light
Hope returns...
Again

And your face is still smiling...
Pretending that it doesn't hurt at all

Cry...
In the moment of heartache
Cry...
When you lost in the dark again

Cry...
When you feel that is over
Cry...
When you know it was all in vain

And your face is still smiling...
Pretending that it doesn't hurt at all

Hiding...
In memories
Hiding...
So far away...

Shadows...
In twilight
I fearing
I'm fading away...

Cry...

Cry...

Cry...
In the moment of heartache
Cry...
When you lost in the dark again

Cry...
In the moment of heartache
Cry...
When you lost in the dark again

Cry...
When you feel that is over
Cry...
When you know it was all in vain

Cry...
