It's taking so long for this feeling to pass
I let it get deep I thought we would last
I just can't let go I know I need to
I let it take me over and I can't get over you

Can't you see me I'm crying at your feet
Why can't we be everything we were?
I can't stop dreaming about the next time we'll met
I need to know who we are

I need you now
To stop this hurting
You're my only hope
I need you now
It's so hard
I can't cope
I need you now
