I want to fight
To live my own way
So take your evil and
Lie in your grave

Bow down to liars to devils filth
Bow down to wayward fool thieves
Lie down with prostitutes and
Lay down your body and soul
Lie down with broken bones
Lay down your body and soul
Lie down with evil and lie in your grave

Do you want to die forever?
Do you want to die forever?
Or do you want to live?

Bow down to liars to devils filth
Bow down to wayward fool thieves
Lie down with prostitutes and
Lay down your body and soul
Lie down with broken bones
Lay down your body and soul
Lie down with evil and lie in your grave

Do you want to die forever?

Merge for the kill
You will not bend or break my will
That breath your wasting
Should be the air your saving
