Long way to go
Far away from home
But always with us
In a song

400 miles from home
But you know I don't do it alone
She's always right here
By my side

I close my eyes
So I can see the things
I wanna see
I close my eyes
So I can see her there
Standing in front of me
Standing in front of me

Life just ain't the same
And you know there ain't no one to blame
Death's a part of life for us
I know

Still I wish she was here
To help me with, all of my fears
She breathes the life into my Soul

I close my eyes
So I can see the things
I wanna see
I close my eyes
So I can see her there
Standing in front of me
Standing in front of me

I close my eyes
So I can see the things
I wanna see
I close my eyes
So I can see her there

Standing in front of me
Standing in front of me
Standing in front of me
