I don't know why
I'm waiting for loving
And I don't know why
Your kiss makes me burn
Every time I see you
I'm longing
For you to just stop
Listen and learn
'Cause I don't know why
You take my love for granted
And I don't know why I still feel the way I do
But baby, you know
That there's more to love
Than this feeling
I can put my pride aside
One time just for you. you
You, you, oh yeah
