Who had told you so baby...

He told me that he always wanted me
From the very first day that he saw me
He kept it hidden because I was forbidden
Could never show the desire that he held within
But the day that he took me home
We made love and it was so strong
And now I'm swept up in his whirlwind
I'm going crazy cause I'm losing

Said it feels just like a love that I lost
Said that's just how it feels to me
Said that's just how it feels to me

Sexually there's so much satisfcation
I bide my time with him he's my distraction
But conversation is so frustrating
He has a lovely art of communicaton.

And that's why I gota let him go
But I can never seem to let him go
Cause now I'm swept up in his whirlwind
I'm going crazy cause I'm losing

Baby

Said it feels just like a love that I lost
Said that's just how it feels to me
Just like I'm on a losing streak

If love is a game then I dont wanna play no more
I feel like I'm losing it
Every day I seem to fall a little more
And I dont wanna lose my heart to him

If love is a game then I dont wanna play no more
I feel like I'm losing it
Every day I seem to fall a little more
And I dont wanna lose my heart to him

And it feels like
It feels just like a love that I lost
That's just how it feels to me
Just like I'm on a losing streak

Because he's got a girl and she's got his babies
So what the hell can he ever give to me except Stolen moments in the nighttime
But in my heart I know he'll never be mine

And although he says he loves me this is something I have yet to see
But now I'm swept up in his whirlwind

It feels just like
A love that I lost
That's just how it sfeels to me
Ah yeah yeah yeah...

If love is a game then I dont wanna play no more
I feel like I'm losing it
Every day I seem to fall a little more
And I dont wanna lose my heart to him

If love is a game then I dont wanna play no more
I feel like I'm losing it
Every day I seem to fall a little more
And I dont wanna lose my heart to him

It feels just like
A love that I lost
It feels just like
A love that I lost
