I'm ready for the simple life right now
Connect and with points.
I welcome it cause I've been taking notes
And every thing I write is telling me to prepare.
In this age of fear and deities no one seems to be scared
I swear I hear laughter (laughter).
We're dying to prove it wrong.
It is natural law. Knowledge equated with advance.
This was our first step back
And now we're on this road,
Oblivious to this journeys end.
But in the side streets and alleys that we know,
We've waited and wrote.
On my mark we're stepping out from the trash and shadows.
Grab all you can
On 3 we're stepping out and we're taking all we can
1. Look at where we've been
2. Gods won't fill the void within
3. No more drawing ranks
Don't draw ranks
