We've established this is where we stand
We said after this we'll just be friends
But my heart don't really know my head
But my heart don't really know my head

We built this wall to keep out complications
We built this wall so we won't have to drown
In the depths where we can gratify temptation
And claim that love will only slow us down

These are not the words that I would like to be saying to you, be saying to you
And I hope that in the morning you will feel the same way that I do, same way that I do

We never talk about the strings and the attachments
We just slam the brakes before it crashes
Will we ever take the chance to see what happens
What we really want we failed to mention

These are not the words that I would like to be saying to
you, be saying to you
And I hope that in the morning you will feel the same
way that I do, same way that I do

I need you to wake up, cause I need to talk to you
I need you to wake up, before we let this go
I need you to wake up, I need you to wake up

These are not the words that I would like to be saying to
you, be saying to you

I need you to wake up, before we let this go
