

Shortie "Smile"

Close your eyes
Sing your favourite song
You know the same song that
I sang for you last night, yeah
Turn off the lights
As you lie alone in your bed
Think about the days
That are passing us by so fast, yeah

I dont know why I should care
I'm not sure if there's something there
But why do I forget to breathe when your near
Part of me says let you go
But if I did then I'd never know
I love it when I make you smile
When you, when you smile

Smile for me, smile with me
Smile for me, smile with me

I close my eyes
Sing my favourite song
It reminds me of the times I made you smile, yeah
I wonder if I were to kiss you, tonight
Would you turn away or would you kiss me back, yeah

I dont know why I still care
I guess I hope that there's something there
I guess I still forget to breathe when you near
Part of me says let you go
Part of me just has to know
I Love it when I make you smile
When you smile

Been holding back for so long now
The need to know it brings me down
I fall asleep with visions of you in my head
If I should find the words to say
Would you turn and walk away
Or would you, would you smile

Smile for me, smile with me

Smile for me, smile with me
