Who is this, trapped inside of me?
An unfamiliar, violent breed
Raping innocence, vestal mutilation
Razor seduction, slicing devastation
My body twists and turns from the agony
My lungs scream as the air is drained
And with the scars as my witness
My arms are maimed
Carnal betrayal, flesh abuse
Bloodloss... And my mind's confused
Torn between decisions
Made between incisions
Malediction murder
Suicidal law
Afflictions choir
I draw the shortest straw
But suddenly I came to clarity
About the black beast inside of me
Contorted through submission
It took life to a higher position
I've felt the black light
Shining with strongest might Guiding to the homicidal paths
And to unleash ungodly wrath
I've seen the black light
Blinding with strongest might Showing me the homicidal way
As I slowly become its slave
..The price all must pay
There must be no mercy for the insignificant and weak
It's no tragedy that all this misery must be cleansed through me
Malediction murder
Homicidal law
Afflictions choir
You'll draw the shortest straw
Malediction murder
Genocidal law
Afflictions choir
Man will draw the shortest straw
When it all crashes down

Death is triumphant and wears its crown
And my work is done
Suicidal law... Yet I have won
