THE MOON

By T. Diaz and E. Velasco

Stanza 1:

Bad memories I'll never forget
Decisions, I shall always regret
I thought you were just like the rest
But it's all over now,
I should have given my best.

Chorus:

The moon shines like a living hymn
So far away, far away, in the blue
The moon shines like a living hymn
So far away, in the blue.

Coda:

Who has gone
But I'm still looking for another one
You open your eyes, but it's too late
Forgive me, for all of my lies.

(Repeat Chorus 5x)
