I hear some people get married in the park,
On a Sunday afternoon,
And all their friends bring pretty flowers,
While a band plays a happy tune.
Now, do you want me?
Do you need me?
Do you love me like I love you?
Ooh, what are you doing Sunday, baby?
Would you like to marry me?
Whoa, oh, oh, what do you say, now,
If it's a nice day, now?
What are you doing Sunday, baby?
Gee, I wanna marry you!
Whoa, oh, oh, what are you doing Sunday afternoon?
Maybe we should wait 'til night to join hands with the stars above.
And we'll be kissin' our first kiss by moonlight...eternal love.
Now, do you want me?
Do you need me?

Do you love me like I love you?
Ooh, what are you doing Sunday, baby?
Would you like to marry me?
Whoa, oh, oh, what do you say, now,
If it's a nice day, now?
What are you doing Sunday, baby?
Gee, I wanna marry you!
Whoa, oh, oh, what are you doing Sunday afternoon?
Do you want me?
Do you need me, baby?
Love me like I love you?
Ooh, what are you doing Sunday, baby?
Would you like to marry me?
Hey, what do you say, now,
If it's a nice day, now?
What are you doing Sunday, baby?
Gee, I wanna marry you!
Whoa, oh, oh, what do you say, now,
If it's a nice day, now? (fades out)
