Yo !! he he

This is what i love and cant stop loving ,
Get wasted at partys from 9 till 7 in the morning , I live for the music , rolling blunts feeling high , getting loaded ,
or take some pills and go to lala land , spending all my money on dope and extreme high price tickets ,
but in the end its all worth it , i like to live in my own world , fcuk regular life fuck a 9 to 5 job , im told to enjoy every hour every minute , so thats what i do on friday's & saturdays why should i take life so seriously i just wanna do what i like to do , be as far from reality cause i cant stand socitey it my own world i just wanna hear the music ...

i think the whole system fcuking sucks everybody working their fcuking asses off during the week , getting totally fcuking stressed out so whats wrong ? & whats right i live for hardstlyes . i live for hardstyles baby
