"Where The Wind Goes"

Look away I know you're leaving me
Your words sharp as daggers
Cut me free

Hollow inside
No feelings to hold me down
I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing will tether me
I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing can hold me

You are gone And I am wandering
Under the starry sky Silently
Hollow inside
No feelings to hold me down

I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing will tether me
I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing can hold me
I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing will hurt me
I'll go where the wind goes
Nothing can hold me

I'll go I'll go I'll go where the wind goes...
