Wake up sugarplum, it's time to be a genius.
Time to beat your brains into a, perfect circle.

Wake up sugarplum up off the mattress
Wash your face and face the faceless,
Muddle masses.

Wake up sugarplum, put on some coffee,
Hesitation breeds resistance-
And I'm not feeling your breath on my neck for nothing
... this time.

(Guitar Solo)

Wake up Sugarplum
Up from sedation,
Face the nation-
They await your answer.

Wake up Sugarplum
Into the mainstream,
The time is right for you to meet,
The one to save us.

Wake up Sugarplum
Gulp down the asprin
You've been asleep for way too long,
And everyone agrees that you should've known better,
... this time.

(Chorus)

It's nothing after all
It's nothing but a freak out
And after all
It's up to you to speak out
So what if you got nothing to say
Today,
We love you, anyway.

(Bridge)

(ahhhhhh... ahhhhhhh... ahhhhhhh)
Wake up Sugarplum
Wake up Sugarplum
Wake up Sugarplum
Cause I'm' not feeling your breath on my neck for nothing
No I'm not feeling your breath on my neck for nothing,
This time.

(Chorus)

It's nothing after all
It's nothing but a freak out
And after all
It's up to you to speak out
So what if you got nothing to say
Today, we love you anyway

It's nothing but a freak out
And after all
It's up to you to speak out
So what if you got nothing to say
Today, we love you anyway

We love you anyway
We love you anyway
We love you anyway
We love you anyway (yeahhhhhh)
We love ya
We love ya (OH YEAH)

(Guitar Solo and Yelling til the End)
