Angel, oh Angel, my companion, my best friend
Angel, oh Angel, we're together 'til the end
When I found you in the street
so alone, so incomplete
I just looked down at you and smiled
Visions of the calamity invade me
Diamonds glow as the nightmare slowly dies
Could I ever replace you? Not even maybe
Now you're my Angel in the sky
Angel, oh Angel, missing you has made me sad

Angel, oh Angel, now you're gone and won't be back
When I'd come home every night
You'd be right there in my sight
At my feet to say hello
Every night I can hear you cry please save me
What's killing me is the way you died
Knowing that you suffered makes me crazy
Reality I must deny
Angel, oh Angel, you're my Angel in the sky
Angel, oh Angel, you're my Angel in the sky
