Get away, Get away
I want none of that
You must have your head up your
Ask me one more time where my heart is at
And I'll say it's not with you

So, let this be a lesson
Don't you dare ever forget
I will be right inside your head
And I hope payback makes you sweat
I guess all the shit you did
Came back to haunt you in the end

I caught you lying
Uh-oh, just look who's crying now
It's not the same
Hearing your name, who are they talking about
Inside I'm dying
But I will never let that out
I'm sure you know
That you should go
Before these words leave my mouth

Look at me
Wanna see what I'm working with
I've got you right where I want you
You ought to be on your knees, begging me to quit
I don't feel sorry for you

So, let this be a lesson
Now your life is such a mess
And if regret were a profession
You know I bet you'd be the best
I guess all this shit you did
Came back to haunt you in the end

I caught you lying
Uh-oh, just look who's crying now
It's not the same
Hearing your name, who are they talking about
Inside I'm dying

But I will never let that out
I'm sure you know
That you should go
Before these words leave my mouth

I caught you lying
Uh-oh, just look who's crying now
It's not the same
Hearing your name, who are they talking about
Inside I'm dying
But I will never let that out
I'm sure you know
That you should go
Before these words leave my mouth
