It's the music, the tattoos, 'cause it's all that we have and we lack
And I've got the best of friends and I know that they will always have my back
When I come with the one, twos, you, take the three fours and now everyone knows
To turn this up and give it everything you've got

'Cause when we want it, we'll get it
And make it all right
When we want it, we'll get it
And make it all right
Making everything, we'll make this count

Everyone's got something to say
We could care less 'cause we're okay
With everything we do because we stay true
To ourselves and what we believe

We're headed south on 95 and we start to feel alive
When we hear our favorite songs
And we can't help but to sing along
We start trouble just to past the time
And it never gets too late, it's a quarter to five
And the sun is coming up, and we won't be letting up

When I come with the one, twos, you, take the three
fours and now everyone knows
To turn this up and give it everything you've got
When we want it, we'll get it
And make it all right
When we want it, we'll get it
And make it all right
Making everything, we'll make this count
We'll make this count

(One, two, three, four)

Everyone's got something to say
We could care less 'cause we're okay
With everything we do because we stay true
To ourselves and what we believe

And this is me letting you know we don't back down
And we won't let go
And this is me letting you know this is who we are

Fuck what they say cause this is how we are and it's how we'll stay [x4]

When I come with the one, twos, you, take the three fours
And it goes like this...

Everyone's got something to say
We could care less 'cause we're okay
With everything we do because we stay true
To ourselves and what we believe

And this is me letting you know we don't back down
And we won't let go
And this is me letting you know this is who we are
