Constant thoughts of anger burn inside of me
The perceive all the lines and deceit
But your ways of hate don't abide to me
Now I'm caught in the thought
Of my grip on reality
Trips come with

Vengeance comes in time
For the muthafucka who slipped
Vengeance comes in time
For the muthafucka who slipped
Yea, for tha muthafucka

Now tha confrontation has arisen
And within it this life you have chosen
You made lies just to try and ignore when
The confrontation has arisen
All these thoughts build up from my emotions
I'm left like this to what extent of the hit
So ya know I'm grabbin' hold when I close in
Because the confrontation has arisen

Well muthafucka slipped

Come on

Fuck you
