He is so fine; every time I view him I can't help but fantasize as I almost turn blind
So muscular I imagine him lifting me effortlessly, a voice so deep and resonating
He could say anything and I would stop immediately and do what ever he has commanded Musky and sweet smelling broody I sniff the air around him, I am mesmerized

Lips locked, hips tipped, legs wrapped tightly around a white back
Will shifting to meet to greet him
All fear and embarrassment long gone, this feels so right not wrong
Emotionally connected, sexually affected
Tiny darts of pleasure are nurtured until they explode into orgasmic rainbows
From curled up toes to hips to lips and back again
I'll do anything to make this moment last forever
I'll say anything to make him mine forever

I don't wanna rush this feeling
Really want to make it last
The way you make me feel is beautiful
Nothin like I've felt in my past
Baby when ya hold me close
Don't want you to let me go
And I think that we should take it slow

I'm goin' nowhere
If I know that you will be right there
As long as there is you then I don't care
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

Any time we'll see
If I was meant for you and you for me
Maybe then we'll know our destiny
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

We can take it there, get physical
But it's not the way to go

What we have right here is very true
Truer than diamonds and gold
Waiting for the joy you bring
Inspiring the words I sing
I just wanna give us time to grow

I'm goin' nowhere
If I know that you will be right there
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

Any time we'll see
If I was meant for you and you for me
Maybe then we'll know our destiny
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

Maybe we should wait
Let's just take our time
There's no need to rush
Love will wait for us
Got to take it slow
Give it time to grow
Give us time to trust
We don't need to rush

I'm goin' nowhere
If I know that you will be right there
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

Any time we'll see
If I was meant for you and you for me
Maybe then we'll know our destiny
Baby we don't need to rush, rush

Rushhh
Don't rush
Rushhh
Don't rush
Rushhh
Don't rush
Rushhh
Don't rush
