If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run
If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run
If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run
If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run
If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

You always hitch up on the corner
You're always smoking marijuana
But don't ya think life could be better?
You need to check the bigger picture
With every day you're getting older
The expectation's getting larger
I hope one day you'll make ya mother
Say that's my son, the big achiever

If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run
If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

If you a bad boy
You'll end on the run

If you a rude boy
You'll end on the run
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face

Yayyyyynooooowyeaaahhh
What a blessing, to be freeeee yeahhh
Yeaaay
Daaadadada

With every day you're getting older
The expectation's getting larger
I hope one day you'll make ya mother
Say that's my son, the big achiever
You always hitch up on the corner
But don't ya think life could be better?

If you a bad boy
If you a rude boy

If you a bad boy
If you a rude boy
You'll find its nice to feel the sun, on ya face
