Just wait Until
You get her all alone
Her heart
Strikes slow
Until she can't hold on

This mic that is on my lips
It lets my words explode
The effort to see you tonight
Has vanished like our love

My fingers run across your neck
I know we'll kiss

And this is my song
I wrote for you
the night is almost gone
i thought you loved me too

This black hair that falls in your face
It covers your delicate eyes
I'll tell them what you've done
No hesitating tonight

As your nails penetrate my skin
I thought this would never end

And this is my song
I wrote for you
the night is almost gone
i thought you loved me too

We kissed and i felt the beauty through her lips it felt like this would never end
The vegas sparkle in her eyes
I thought she was mine forever
But he took her from me
I told you when i die your heart will be mine and no matter what it takes I'll keep that promise to you
No matter what...

NO MATTER WHAT! i will win your heart
