Watching the sequence of sounds coming out of your mouth but the song is too loud follow the hands as they move try to make out your mood but my brain doesn't want to

silent call for you
what have I done to you

kill and run,
kill and run
I'm one of the dirty guns
kill and run,
kill and run
a bullet through your heart

interpret the eyes as they die should i cry should i love your poor lashes low
victim of sensory love
you cry over my body
an innocent call

silent call for you

kill and run
kill and run,
kill and run

kill and run

kill and run,
kill and run
