Blossom lipped ladies and men with a gleaming in their eyes

Fat

Happy babies sit on their born thin mother's thighs

Picture a vow

Picture a well

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

All others laughing

The joke's by the host

He's the man

All others dancing in couples to these session bands

Wearing smiles

Hot

Cold 45s

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

Yeah

Cracks in this fine social scene

Fault with this whole pantomime

Cracks in this fine social scene

Fault with this whole pantomime

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Yeah)

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

(Ah)

(Ah)

(Ah)

(Ah)

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh)
