Red high heels
Is the way i feels
Got the sways and reels
Going home
Red high heels
And the church bells peal
Cross the snowy fields
Going home
I walk down these aisles
Nobody's here-just me
And the birds in the belfry
Murmuring murmuring
I took all your letters
Strung together
A white river of love and kneeling Trailing trailing
well, i don't know
i'm on my own again
start alone
end alone
so my love
maybe i'm glad
i met you on the way...
I walk up these aisles
Nobody's here - just me
And the doves up above me
Murmuring murmuring
Where could you be now?
Could you be that far?
Are you still thinking of me...
Listening listening
well, i don't care
if i'm on my own again
start alone
end alone
so my love
i guess i'm glad
i met you on the way...
Red high heels
Is the way i feels
Got the sways and reels

Going home
Red high heels
And the church bells peal
Cross the snowy fields
Going home
I walk down the aisles
Nobody's here - trust me
Is it already gone now?
And the bells start to ring
Better get outside
Before they arrive('scuse me)
Merry christmas and easter
Snow
Falling falling
well, i don't care
if i'm on my own again
start alone
end alone
so my love
i guess i'm glad
i met you on the way...
Red high heels
Is the way i feels
Got the sways and reels
Going home
Red high heels
And the church bells peal
And the children steal
Going home
Red high heels
Is the way i feels
And i teeter off
Cross the parking lot
I could steal your heart
But i don't know who...
I could make you mine
Such a tall street light
Love is what i say
It won't go away
La la lala...
Maybe i'll lie down here
And watch the stars awhile
And these red high heels
I can still see them
They're the only thing that's real
In these frozen fields Yeah yeah...
