I try so hard but I just can't pretend

I see your eyes look down the mouth I'll be your friend I try so hard but I can't seem to relate to a world that's full of pain I've see it's face Youâ€¦ have toâ€¦ be trueâ€¦ want to?

I drag my arm but I can't let you go Through these puddles of pain I can't keep control
On my mind now battles that you'll never win
Should I seek your love or be your friend

Give in I've shown I want to take control
Begin to wanna see myself in a hole
Take out your eyes to see deep inside
Rip out the parts of me that will make you hide

How far we are â€¦ how far away we are now â€¦ you can't save me.
