I'll change the things in life that I can't see

Follow me into a time I'll set you free
I will wait with open arms I can't be afraid
Come with me, I'll show the way till yesterday

Today
Always
Afraid
Of what? I don't know

I awake thoughts of you I begin to shake
Eyes are worn. These sleepless eyes can't stay awake
Wait for me. Don't go too far that I can't see

Today
Always
Of what? I don't know

Signify, realized, no more pain, I want to say goodbye
One more time just to feel it still
One last time just to be for real
I feel it still
Be for real

One last time I see this place in mind, hand in mine
Can it be? Broken arm, broken face, seventeen.
One last time I see this twisted mind, hand in mine
Can it be? Broken arm, broken face, seventeen

Feel it still
Be for real
Feel it still
Be for real
