Let's move baby,
Shit rent pay for the view
I do it all for you and the skyline that shines though
It's too early, I'm cold, it's late, hit snooze
Wrap me in skin and prove everything I have to lose

Forget respect, we're way beyond that

I'm not crazy
Big house, white fence, nice cars
Not that I find those flaws.
It's just your future, not ours, I'm not jaded.
I find solace in your arms
You can not fight this charm
So baby drop your guard

Well I got this one thing baby, yeah you ought to know
(Yeah you ought to know)
Well I got this one baby, I'll be fine.
It's all mine so just let go
Yeah I got this one this baby
And I'm showing to you
Well I got this one thing baby, and it's all for you now.
