[Verse 1: Willie]

And it's a cold, cold night.
Rain is falling.
It's been that way quite a few days now.
Fresh off the road.
And I'm feeling this might be the day.
Man, who knows?
I might finally see your face baby, yeah.

[Pre-Chorus:]

And although I'm tired I'm a keep on pressing on.
Cause I gotta find you.
Babygirl, it won't be long.
And it's just like fire.
Damn, you should've been my bones.
And I know it won't be long till I find that rib that I own.

[Chorus:]

Cause any day now you're coming home.
Hey, where you at now?
Where you at now?
Can it be today?
Maybe tomorrow.
I don't know.
Either way it's gotta be any day now.

[Verse 2: Que]

Girl, I can't front it's getting harder, harder.
Sitting up waiting every day for something that's laid up for you.
But I ain't gonna rush you, no.
(Cause good things always comes to those who wait)
So I'm a just fall back.
But don't make a move.
Girl, wait for me.

[Pre-Chorus:]

And it's just like fire.
Damn, you should've been my bones. (Damn that should've been my bone)
And I know it won't be long till I find that rib that I own.

(The rib that I own)

[Chorus:]

Cause any day now you're coming home. (Coming home to me)
Hey, where you at now? (Where you at now)
Where you at now? (Yeah)
Can it be today?
Maybe tomorrow. (Could it be today)
I don't know. (Or could it be tomorrow)
Either way it's gotta be any day now. (It's gotta be any day now, ohhh, hey hey)

[Chorus: Robert]

Cause any day now you're coming home. (Any day now)
Hey, where you at now?
Where you at now? (Where you at now)
Can it be today?
Maybe tomorrow. (Tomorrow)
I don't know.
Either way it's gotta be any day now. (Any day now, it's gotta be any day now)
