Evil friend, Evil friend
It never ends at the death of things
Love will swing, burn everything and sing
Evil friend Evil friend, Evil friend
There is starlight in your blood
It seems there are shadows that are wearing us
Evil friend Evil friend, Evil friend
You knew rebirth but died again
Evil friend
Black-toothed that speaks no truth
Burn everything and sing along
Evil friend Evil friend Evil friend
We are night sky, we are god's eye, At the end of a lullaby
On the shore of tears yet to be cried
We are, we are, night sky, night sky We are, we are,
God's eye, God's eye
At the end of a lullaby
On the shore of tears yet to be cried
We are, we are, night sky, night sky We are, we are,
God's eye, God's eye
At the end of a lullaby
[x3]
On the shore of tears yet to be cried
