

Sick Of Change

"Free Spirit"

We've taken to much for granted
The basis that some are denied Some choose to ignore this right while others would give up their lives.
For the chance to voice their opinions through all of the torture and crime
Lies and deception won't change the direction of will in it's fight to survive
Freedom, not free, freedom

Even when kept in restraint the spirit continues to thrive Lies and deception won't change the direction of will
In it's fight to survive

Figures of oppression breathing down our necks
Free spirit continues to thrive
Free spirit in the face of denial this oppression,
The depression answer it with indignation
