If I could be anywhere
I would be half way round this world
If I could do anything
Whatever it takes to change this girl
So please accept my apology
I never knew just what to say
For lack of a better word
But then again why should I explain

You said to me you said this was the hardest part
I held your hand now I hope that you sink in
What were you thinking, hold my hand while I sink in

I was trying to lift you up
But we both came crashing down
Now everything weighs a ton
And it's crushing everyone
And now were a desert, desert
And it all makes perfect sense
That the words between us
They all are past tense

You said to me you said this was the hardest part
I held your hand now I hope that you sink in
What were you thinking, hold my hand while I sink in

I just don't think I know
Why don't you let go
Well I just don't think I know
No no no no
Why don't you let go

You said to me you said this was the hardest part
I held your hand now I hope that you sink in
What were you thinking, hold my hand while I sink in

You said to me you said this was the hardest part
I held your hand now I hope that you sink in
What were you thinking, hold my hand while I sink in
